

Extended School Core services (in and around schools):

+ A varied menu of activities (including study support and play) and childcare

- Primary Schools - access to a varied menu of activities, combined with childcare, from 8am to 6pm, five days a week, 48 weeks a year (includes signposting).
- Secondary Schools - access to a varied menu of activities which also offer young people a safe place to be from 8am to 6pm during term-time and more flexibly in the holidays (includes signposting).

+ Parenting Support

- Access to parenting programmes, both structured and in-formal opportunities for parents to engage with the school and each other
- Access to family learning sessions to allow children to learn with their fathers and mothers
- Access information sessions for fathers and mothers at the beginning of primary and secondary phases
- Information about nationally and locally available sources of information, advice and support

+ Swift and Easy access to targeted and specialist services

- Access to (either on school site, or signposted somewhere close-by) multi-agency support such as, special educational needs (SEN) and disability support services; health services; behavioural support; and others such as counsellors; youth workers; family support and social care workers, to ensure child's/young person's needs are met.

+ Community Access

- Adult learning opportunities based at the school, or signposted somewhere near-by
- Where schools have facilities suitable for use by the wider community, it can look to open these up to meet wider community needs - in response to local demand

Not every school will need to provide all these services and activities on school-site, access can be through the cluster of local schools or through other providers. The services and activities on offer will be determined by local needs and demand through consultation.
